GED Account Profile

The screenshot shows the MyGED account profile page. The browser address bar displays the URL <https://app.ged.com/portal#/profile>. The page header includes the GED logo, navigation links (Home, About the Test, Study, Test Tips, Where to Test, My Scores, College & Careers), a "SCHEDULE TEST" button, and icons for Chat and Profile. The main content area is titled "Edit Profile" and contains several input fields: Password, Email, Personal info, Employment Information, and Contact Preferences. A "GED® Test Prep Center" section is highlighted with a red oval and includes a "View" button. A dropdown menu is open, showing the user's name "Brian Candidate", a partially visible ID number "20180628-0718-6753", and options for "Edit Profile", "Alerts", "Messages 2", "Appointments", and "Log Out". The "Edit Profile" option is circled in red. Below the profile fields, there is a message: "You still haven't selected a GED® Test Prep Center to share your scores with a teacher and get expert help. Teachers at local GED® Test Prep Centers can check your score report, give study advice and help you pass a test. Sharing your scores with a GED® Test Prep Center is not mandatory for receiving adult education or prep center services." At the bottom, a section titled "A GED® class can provide:" lists four benefits: "Support throughout your GED® journey", "Expert instruction on GED® test subjects", "Practice for the GED® test", and "Help with career and college planning". A testimonial from Felix, a GED® graduate, is also present, along with a photo of him.

The navigation menu includes 'Home', 'About the Test', 'Study', 'Test Tips', 'Where to Test', 'My Scores', and 'College & Careers', along with a 'SCHEDULE TEST' button. The user's name 'Brian Candidate' and ID '20180628-0718-6753' are visible in the top right, with an 'Edit Profile' link circled in red. The main content area features several input fields: 'Password', 'Email', 'Personal info', 'Employment Information', and 'Contact Preferences'. Below these is a blue bar for 'GED® Test Prep Center' with a 'Hide' dropdown, also circled in red. A text block below explains that users can share scores with local GED® Test Prep Centers for expert help. At the bottom, a section titled 'A GED® class can provide:' lists four benefits: support throughout the journey, expert instruction, practice for the test, and help with career planning. A testimonial from Felix, a GED® graduate, is also present, along with a photo of him.

- Adult Educators can sort by one student or groups of students and export the results – sorting by date, enrollment status or credential status
- Educators can edit the status of a student from ‘Interested’ to ‘Contacted,’ ‘Dismissed,’ or ‘Enrolled’ and write notes about the students

Important to know who is an enrolled student vs. an interested student

The screenshot shows a web form for updating a student's enrollment status. The title is "Update GED® Prep Student Enrollment Status". Below the title, it displays "Student: Brian Smith" and "Current Status: Interested". There is a dropdown menu currently set to "Enrolled". Below that is a "Notes:" section with a text area containing the text "Attends night time classes". At the bottom of the form are two buttons: "Cancel" and "Confirm".

Educators will also see students' information who are interested in a program but not currently enrolled

It is up to the adult education program to reach out to those students to get them to enroll

It makes running reports of your current students much easier

Tips for outreach to interested students

- Make sure you update the status of the students in your program
- Successful programs have teachers assigned to monitor GEDPrep Connect enrollment and reach out to Interested students
- Do not be afraid to call or email students – they shared their contact information for a reason!
- Consider using Remind.com to streamline outreach

Accessing GED Manager

Process for getting access to GED Manager

- Each state has different guidelines on who can get access
- Email your State Relationship Manager or request access at operations@GED.com
- Email address needs to be different than the one you may have used to create a GED.com account

New GED Manager™ users will receive a welcome email and training document

- Once the Adult Ed Center user names and emails have been entered into GED Manager™ by GED Testing Service, the new users will receive a welcome email and training document on how to access their students' scores
- Adult Ed Centers will be able to see only scores for their students at their location and not others
- All students from a specific Center may not have viewable scores if each student doesn't authorize the Center to have access
- Access to student scores will be available to the Adult Ed Center user as soon as the student selects the Adult Ed Center in GED.com.
 - The student may or may not have a completed test (GED Ready® or a GED® test) when they select their Adult Ed Center
 - Under-age students will not show in GED Manager

What you need to know about the GED® Language Arts Test

- 1 You should be familiar with reading and writing concepts, along with grammar. However, the language arts test is not a memorization test! You don't need to memorize giant vocabularies, words, or diagrams, sentences.
- 2 You'll need to read and understand test passages (literary and informational excerpts), draw conclusions (which is using your critical thinking skills in reading and writing). The test also covers grammar. This study guide and the example questions in it will help you get ready.
- 3 You don't need to know everything in this guide! If you want to see how close you are to passing, the GED Ready® official practice test is a great tool.

Test Overview

Topics

Expressing meaning
Using evidence
Grammar and sentence structure

Time (to take the test)

150 minutes
10 minute break between parts 2 and 3
45 minutes for the written essay

Format

3 sections
1 written essay (extended response)
Multiple choice and other question types (drag and drop, hot spot, and drop down)

Expressing meaning

1 Events, plots, characters, settings, and ideas

You'll be asked to:

- Put events in order
- Make inferences or draw conclusions about plots, sequence of events, characters, settings, and ideas in passages
- Analyze relationships within passages, including how people, events, and ideas are connected

For example, a passage describes Roberta, who is about to begin college and is the first person in her family to do so. The author may use words like "nervous," "excited," "proud," and "scared" to describe a variety of emotions Roberta experiences. The author could write about events leading up to enrolling in college, including navigating the application and financial aid processes. They may also share some information about the mixed responses from Roberta's family and friends -- many, but not all -- of whom are supportive.

You could be asked to make inferences about how Roberta was influenced by current or past events; the sequence of events that led to her enrolling in college; and what conclusions you can draw about Roberta's experience.

Example Questions

Events, plots, characters, settings, and ideas

Excerpt from Anne of Green Gables
By L. M. Montgomery

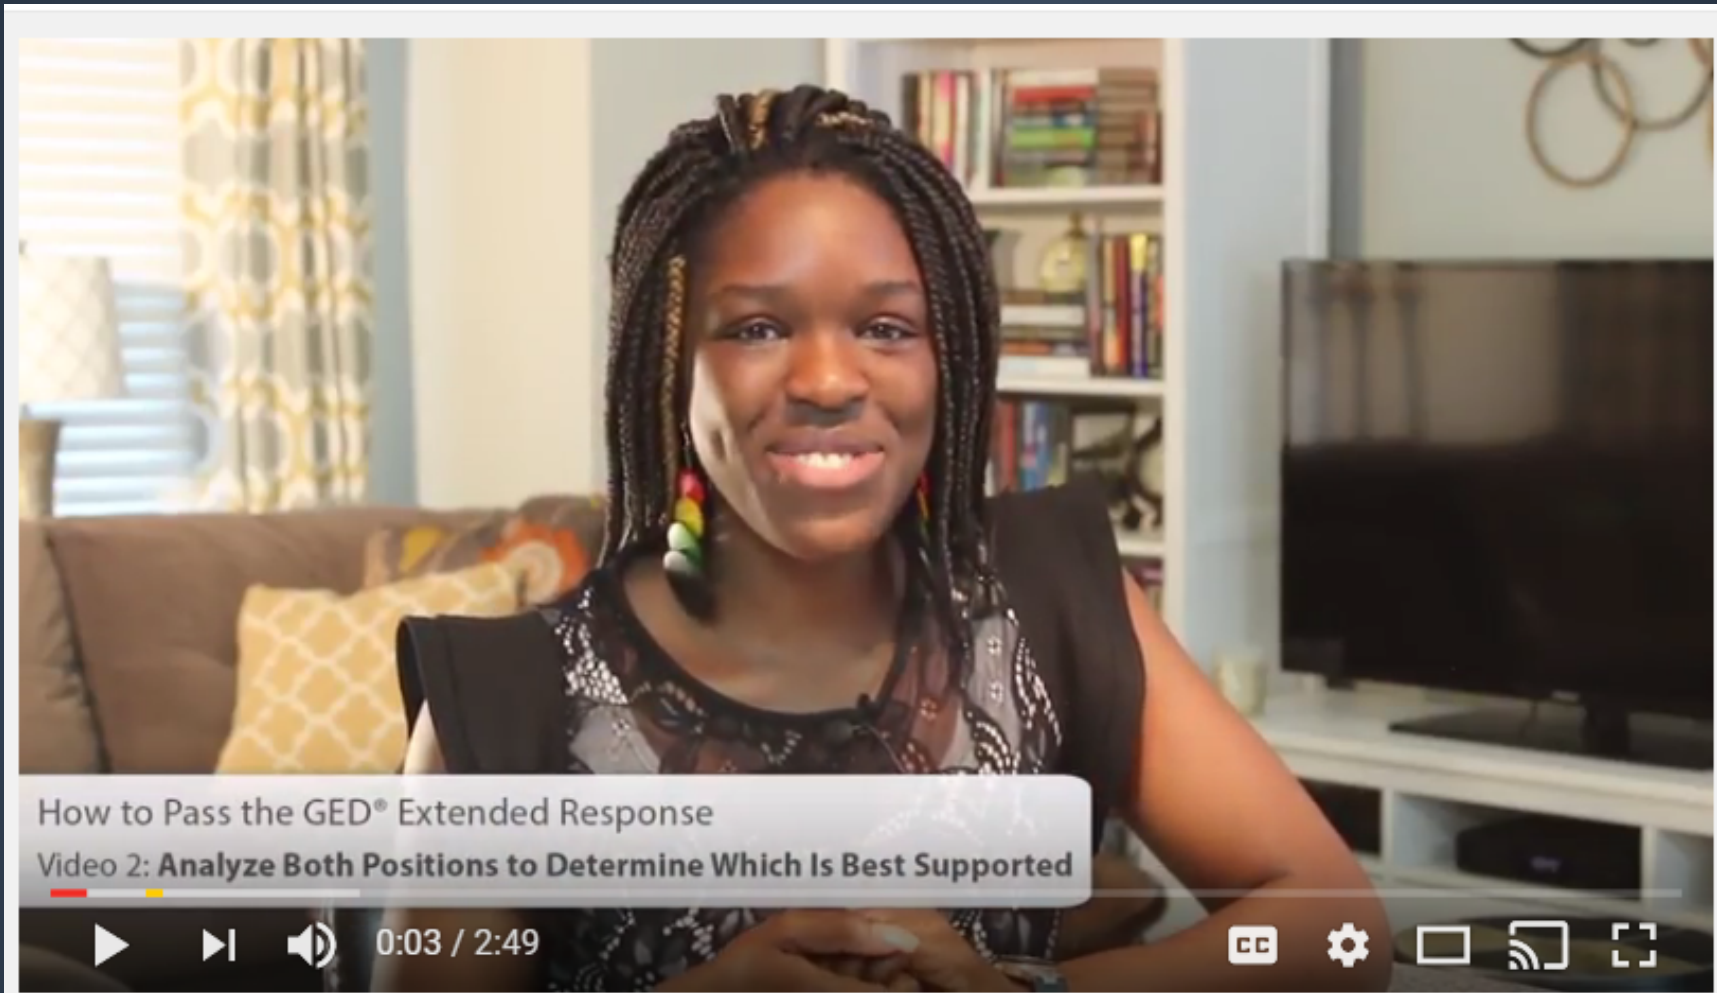

Marilla came briskly forward as Matthew opened the door. But when her eyes fell on the odd little figure in the stiff, ugly dress, with the long braids of red hair and the eager, luminous eyes, she stopped short in amazement.

"Matthew Culbert, who's that?" she exclaimed. "Where is the boy?"

"There wasn't any boy," said Matthew wretchedly. "There was only her."

He nodded at the child, remembering that he had never even asked her name.

"No boy! But there must have been a boy!" insisted Marilla. "We sent word to Mrs. Spencer to bring a boy."

New Readers Press launches 8-video series on RLA

NEW Videos MAXIMIZE YOUR SCORE ON THE GED® EXTENDED RESPONSE

It's important for students to know the content covered on the GED® test. But it's also important for them to feel comfortable and confident on test day. Going into the test knowing what to expect, and having a few key test-taking strategies, will go a long way in ensuring students' success.

New Readers Press® and GED Testing Service® have partnered to create a new series of eight videos to help students maximize their score on the GED® Reasoning Through Language Arts Test Extended Response. In these videos, Alice, a recent GED® graduate, encourages test takers and provides proven strategies and helpful tips for students to improve their score.

View videos at: www.newreaderspress.com/writing-for-the-ged-test

VIDEO TOPICS INCLUDE:

1. Overview of the Extended Response
2. Analyze Both Positions to Determine Which Is Best Supported
