GED.com and GED Ready®

We encourage educators to:

- Create a GED.com account for yourself
- Set-up your GED.com using a personal email address
- Use a fake last name such as “Educator” or “Adult Educator”
- Being familiar with the questions/flow of GED.com will allow you to help your students more.

We encourage educators to:

- Take at least one subject of the GED Ready Official Practice Test
- Questions on the GED Ready are just like the ones on the actual test
- Test interface on the GED Ready is the same as on the GED test
- Students should be familiar with the test interface, tools and resources prior to test day. This is very important.
- Taking a GED Ready as a small group is something education programs have told me works well for them.

Thank You!
